| A Lightfever event will be held in the Cathedral of the Most Holy Trinity, Waterford on Saturday 23rd July from 1-5pm. Lightfever is an afternoon of "Open Church" where missionaries go in pairs onto the streets and invite people to come inside and experience a special atmosphere of music, prayer, confession and candlelight, allowing us spend time in prayer and adoration before the Blessed Sacrament. Feel free to come and leave as you want. | Meditation How this day turns out depends, in part, on how it begins. Begin your day with an attitude of joyful anticipation, and you reap the reward of your own state of mind. But begin it with disgust or reluctance, and your state of mind will pursue you as the hours unfold. You set the tone of your day by the way you welcome it. Each day is a gift of God to us, but sometimes the gift comes wrapped in sombre colours. We may wake up with pain, or with the knowledge that we face a difficult or disagreeable task. Trusting that God is with us can give us the courage we need. Looking forward to something pleasant can lessen the difficulties we have to face. Learning to believe in ourselves can calm the fears we feel. However we choose to begin this day, we do have the power to determine, to some extent, what this will be like. |
| Who was St. Mary Magdalene? 22nd July Poor old Mary Magdalene, dubbed as a prostitute and a sinner, but who was she really? Mary Magdalene is mentioned in each of the four gospels in the New Testament, but not once does it mention that she was a prostitute or a sinner. At some point Mary Magdalene became confused with two other women in the Bible: Mary, the sister of Martha and the unnamed sinner from Luke's Gospel (7:36-50) In 1969 the Catholic Church declared that Mary Magdalene was not the penitent sinner of Luke's Gospel but the reputation still lingers. | He knelt down at the open windows (Dan. 6.10) You have given us this day, Lord, And I want to receive it with as joyful heart as I can. I have the power to make it more beautiful. I have the power to lessen its pains. I have the power to rediscover its joys. May I live this day, as you would have me live it. (Focus Your Day, Kenneth E.Grabner, C.S.C) Bitesize There are those who look at things the way they are, and ask "why?" I dream of things that never were, and ask "why not?"h Robert Francis Kennedy, 1968 presidential campaign |
