APPLICATIONS ARE INVITED FOR THE POSITION OF CHURCH SACRISTAN in St Joseph and St Benildus Church, Newtown, Waterford. Essential duties include the preparation of the church for Mass and other liturgical services, the ordering of church requisites, maintaining order in the sacristy, the opening and the closing of the church and liaising with other church personnel. This is a part-time position and may suit someone who has recently retired. Applications with full CV can be emailed to the parish priest, Fr Liam Power at parishofficejbm@gmail.com or they can be posted to Fr Liam Power PP, St Joseph and St Benildus, Newtown Road, Waterford. A full job description is available on request from the parish office.

ST JOSEPH & ST BENILDUS' CHURCH CLOSED from 14th to 16th July included due to essential electrical work. A new fuse board is being installed, and there will be no power in the church during this time. This work is necessary to comply with recent safety regulations. The regular Mass schedule will continue as usual, with Mass at 7.30 am and 10.30 am each day in St Mary's, Ballygunner. The Parish Office and Parish Centre will remain open as normal.

CONGRATULATIONS TO DAVID POWER

on his recent success at the Special Olympics, where he proudly brought home medals. David also took on the challenge of the Viking Marathon, showing not only athletic strength but also great spirit and determination. Well done, David! Your accomplishments are a source of pride and inspiration for all of us in the parish community. Your hard work and commitment remind us of the power of courage, community, and the importance of never giving up on our goals.
